PRESERVING THE LANGUAGE

ROOT OF ARAB IDENTITY

- The language is central to our national pride. As the Kingdom advances in science and technology, Arabic remains the spiritual and cultural anchor that ties innovation to identity.
- Our college contributes by offering Arabic programs that not only teach grammar and vocabulary, but also instill appreciation for Arabic's beauty, precision, and historical depth.

MEDIUM OF THE QUR'AN

- Arabic is not just a language — it is the carrier of Islamic civilization, the medium of the Qur'an, and the root of Arab identity. Preserving it means preserving knowledge, heritage, and cultural continuity.
- At KFUPM, we are committed to ensuring that every graduate, regardless of major, maintains a strong foundation in Arabic. Through mandatory courses, classical and modern texts, and language-focused research, we help protect Arabic from dilution in a globalized world.
